

FAMILY TEAM PRACTICE REVIEW INFO SHEET

CPPC Family Team Practice Reviews are provider-only meetings focused on improving working relationships and shared understanding among providers on the family team.

- ▶ The Family Team Practice Review is a facilitated case review focused on the following questions: What were the intended results? What were the actual results? What contributed to the results? What will be sustained? What will be improved?
- ▶ Family Team Practice Reviews provide a learning framework for providers to explore Shared Decision Making and Family Centered Practice on family teams. Practice Reviews are not designed to address client grievances.
- ▶ Family Team Practice Reviews are often requested when there has been a process element or outcome that was confusing to members of the family team.
- ▶ A trained neutral facilitator from The Opportunity Alliance’s Mediation Program will guide the conversation.
- ▶ A member of the Southern Maine CPPC Practice Committee who is not involved in the case will offer secondary support.
- ▶ CPPC strictly adheres to the principle of “nothing about us without us,” focusing on practice and partnership among providers, and steering away from decisions about the family in these reviews.
